Second Place: Jim Schutz

Third Place: Chris Header

Thanks to all the volunteers that stepped up to help at the club this season.

Many hands helped with the Juniors, the school program, organizing Bonspiels, decorating the club, baking, cooking, league representatives, those that put the ice in and those that helped take the ice out.

Volunteers are the life blood of our club. They are essential for the maintenance of the club, league operations and the success of our events.

If you are able, Please consider adding your talents and abilities to our hard working groups of volunteers.

Looking for Board Members:

As we start our planning for next season, we are looking for members who are interested in joining the board. This is a great way to help the club and ensure that everything is ready for the upcoming curling season.

Reach out to Don Mitchinson

Well that’s a wrap for this 2023/2024 season.

May you enjoy the summer and we’ll see you next September!
